"What do you mean you're not used to me? How good I treat you or the color of my skin?"

Tiffah had been there, done that with enduring heart-wrenching pain. She would've bet her last dollar on the love she and Aaron once shared but the inevitable happened; leaving her to patch herself. In the midst, along came Ross, who was different from the nature of her liking. He's not willing to let her slip away from him that easily, if only she's willing to chance his difference. Unexpectedly, the ex wife that he failed to mention resurfaces in hopes that he'd been waiting on her to return. Shareen isn't found of the realization that he's moving on and she'll do whatever needed to capture his heart again; even if it means recruiting an army.

Anastasia, Tiffah's best friend and Aaron's twin sister is torn between the two of them. They volunteer her to pick a side; but she has her own dilemmas with Ralph - A dangerous, self-righteous, bad boy that her heart can't ignore.

Love can't conquer all when complications are involved. These couples find themselves in an ongoing battle between what they deserve and the things they'll allow.
