She's carrying another man's baby and wants nothing to do with me, but I put her in danger and I intend on keeping them both safe.

When I see her working for the target of my mission I know it's a bad idea.

I'm on the government's time and know I shouldn't want her but I do.

She looks even better than she did the day I met her but way more confident. Like the survivor she is.

She thinks I'm rude, demanding and controlling and maybe she's right but I need for her to stay away.

It's the only way I can get what I came for and keep her safe at the same time.

This office isn't big enough for the both of us and controlling myself won't be easy.

Imperfectly Loving Her is bwwm steamy stand alone romance. Not appropriate for readers under 18.
